

SEMINAR FOR SOCIAL STUDIES

FREE ADMISSION • COMPLIMENTARY LUNCH

PRESENTED BY

Monday, March 25th / 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Arcadia University's King of Prussia Campus

1150 First Avenue, Parkview Tower Bldg., Suite 700
King of Prussia, PA 19406

Join us... for a day-long seminar on civics education, technology in the social studies classroom, the effect of Keystone Exam on the social studies curriculum, job opportunities in social studies. The program is open to pre-service teachers and active teachers. If you are interested in attending please email Beth Specker, Director of Education Initiatives, Arcadia University's School of Continuing Studies at speckerb@arcadia.edu.

SCHEDULE

- | | | | |
|-------|---|-------|---|
| 9:00 | Registration/Continental Breakfast | 12:00 | CICERO Instructional Software for Middle Level Social Studies/Project PEACE for Secondary School |
| 9:30 | Welcome: David Trevaskis
Pennsylvania Council for the Social Studies | 1:00 | Lunch (Complimentary) |
| 9:35 | Welcome and Greetings: Beth Specker
Director of Education Initiatives | 1:30 | The Keystone Examinations and the Social Studies Curriculum
Sergio Anya Arcadia University |
| 9:45 | PCSS Introduction and Vision for the Day: Dr. Jodi Bornstein
Arcadia University School of Education | 2:30 | Employment Opportunities for Social Studies Educators
Panel Discussion |
| 10:00 | Legal Issues, Themes, and Resources:
David Trevaskis, Esquire and Susan Etter, Esquire, Pennsylvania Bar Association | 4:00 | Concluding Comments /Take Home Materials |
| 11:00 | CICERO Instructional Software for Secondary Social Studies/Project PEACE for Middle Level Social Studies | | |

REGISTER TODAY

Contact: Beth Specker at speckerb@arcadia.edu or 484-408-2328
ACT 48 for Educators

ARCADIA
UNIVERSITY
KING OF PRUSSIA CAMPUS

SCHOOL of CONTINUING
STUDIES