

Teaching about Genocide and Human Rights: The Choices Approach

Thursday, October 18, 2018 | 8:30am - 3pm | Harrisburg, PA

Cost

$145 per person. Workshop includes the two curriculum units, lunch, and a certificate of completion. PA teachers can receive Act 48 credit. A limited number of partial scholarships are available for pre-service teachers.

Who Should Attend

History, geography, government, current issues, civics and other social studies educators are the main audience. Materials are appropriate for grades 7-12. Humanities teachers often use our materials and are encouraged to attend.

During the workshop, you will:

- Be introduced to the Choices Program's award-winning resources and approach to teaching about contested international issues;
- Examine and work with the Choices units: Competing Visions of Human Rights: Questions for U.S. Policy and Confronting Genocide: Never Again? (provided);
- Network with exemplary colleagues in social studies education from across the state.

Co-sponsored by the Pennsylvania Council for the Social Studies.
